

Posted on Tue, Jun. 09, 2009

Pixius CEO testifying today in South Dakota

BY KAREN SHIDELER
The Wichita Eagle

Jay Maxwell, CEO of Wichita's Pixius Communications, is to speak today to the National Advisory Committee on Rural Health and Human Services at its meeting in Rapid City, S.D.

Maxwell internet company serves a number of rural Kansas communities.

He is expected to urge federal officials to use American Recovery and Reinvestment Act money for broadband deployment to make sure rural areas continue to have access to health care through telemedicine channels.

© 2007 Wichita Eagle and wire service sources. All Rights Reserved. <http://www.kansas.com>